

CONTACT:

David W. Pijor
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
703-436-3802

First Virginia Community Bank Promotes Two Employees

FAIRFAX, Va. (March 26, 2013) — First Virginia Community Bank (FVCbank), a state-chartered bank with offices in Arlington, Fairfax, Manassas and Reston, Va., promoted Steffany Watson to senior vice president, treasury management and Joshua Steele to senior vice president, commercial lending.

Watson, previously a vice president, has served in treasury management since joining FVCbank in December 2007. A 24-year veteran of the banking industry, the Bristow, Va. resident has experience in branch banking, commercial lending, and merchant credit card and particular expertise in treasury management. Prior to joining FVCbank, she worked at BB&T, PNC Bank, Mercantile Bank Shares and James Monroe Bank.

Steele, previously a vice president, joined FVCbank in February 2009. A resident of Fairfax, Va., he has more than 12 years of banking experience and specializes in commercial real estate financing. Prior to joining FVCbank, he worked at Union Bank & Trust located in Springfield, Va. and Banner Bank and U.S. Bank located in Seattle, Wa.

About First Virginia Community Bank

First Virginia Community Bank is a state-chartered, locally owned and managed bank serving small and mid-sized businesses and personal banking customers in Northern Virginia. Based in Fairfax, Va., it has additional full-service offices in Manassas and Reston, and recently entered the Arlington market with its acquisition of 1st Commonwealth Bank of Virginia.

FVCbank opened for business in November 2007, just 11 months after raising $23.0 million in capital. Growing at a brisk pace, it raised $6.3 million in a second private stock offering in the fall of 2010, and completed a third private stock offering in December 2011, raising an additional $6.7 million.

Visit www.fvcbank.com for more information.

###