PRESS RELEASE

Christopher O. Turley Joins First Virginia Community Bank

David W. Pijor, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, announced that Christopher O. Turley has joined First Virginia Community Bank as Vice President and Commercial lender specializing in Government Contractor Lending throughout the First Virginia Community Bank lending footprint. Chris brings a diverse banking background through his previous employment with Chevy Chase Bank, a Division of Capital One, N.A., both in the Retail, Risk Management and Commercial Lending Divisions. In addition, Chris is a Northern Virginian native who grew up in Prince William County, Virginia. Chris will be located at the Bank's Headquarters located at 11325 Random Hills Road, Suite 240, Fairfax, VA 22030.

"We are pleased to have Chris as a member of our team," says Pijor. "Chris's business acumen and wealth of experience in his specialized field of lending to Federal Contractors makes him ideally suited for this position."

Mr. Turley stated, "I am extremely excited about joining First Virginia Community Bank as their new Government Contractor focused commercial lender. FVCB is giving me the opportunity to leverage my specialized banking experience by allowing me to build strong financial relationships with local businesses and communities that gave so much to me as I was growing up. I look forward to developing these relationships and helping FVCB to strengthen its presence as the premier Community Bank in Virginia."

Chris will be joining the Fairfax and Reston Chamber of Commerce as well as becoming a member of the Small and Emerging Contractors Advisory Forum (SECAF) and other various networking organizations throughout the DC Metropolitan area.

Chris earned his Bachelors of Administration degree in Finance from James Madison University College of Business.
